

MRS. WELLS TELLS HOW SHE ELOPED WITH RICH YOUTH

Once Sued James Raynor Wells for Breach of Promise to Marry.

At the close of an all-day story, during which the young couple sent out reports upon reports that they were not in the city, Mr. and Mrs. James Raynor Wells, the latest exponent of how to be happy though married, were brought to bay this afternoon in the apartment of Miss Jeannette Horton at No. 206 West Fifty-second street.

The bridegroom is the son of a multi-millionaire, William Morris Wells, president of the Fairbanks Scales Company, and the bride none other than the fair May Maloney, formerly one of Broadway's most popular showgirls, but for the last year or so an actress with real lines to speak.

The elopement to Wilmington last Tuesday was the culmination of a ten-year romance. That is to say, both principals to the affair declared to-day they had been in love all of that time, and that the interruption caused by young Wells's hasty marriage several years ago to another showgirl, Irene Dabney Bishop, and subsequent divorce, to say nothing of Miss Maloney's suit for breach of promise, which was later dropped, were only the results of a lovers' quarrel.

DON'T KNOW YET HOW FAMILY WILL TAKE IT.

The only thing to mar the complete happiness of the young couple—Wells is 28 and Miss Maloney is that confoundingly close to 26 years—is the still unvoiced question as to the attitude of the bridegroom's family.

"I called up the family to-day," said Mr. Wells after he and his laughing bride had been literally forced to appear before the assembled newspaper reporters. "I did not speak with my father, but I arranged to see them all to-morrow. Just what will be the result I can't say. In any event, I have my own private means and we shan't be dependent on my family."

"When did you and Miss Maloney decide to elope?" was asked.

"Oh, some time last week. It is not a new affair, you know. We have been in love for ten years and we finally decided to marry regardless of what my family should think. We went to Wilmington, as Delaware is the only near-by State in which I could be married without delay, according to the decree in my divorce."

"As for me," put in the bride, "there is nothing I can say except that I am only always have been deeply in love with Mr. Wells. He has been steadfastly refused to marry him because of the objections raised by his family. You see, he is a Protestant and I am a Catholic, and that was the main objection. But he finally prevailed and now that it is over I know we shall be very, very, very happy—and all that sort of thing."

After Mrs. Wells relaxed into a slight smile and the beating bridegroom closed the interview with the observation:

"You can say for me that I firmly believe a man, whether rich or poor, should marry only where he loves. I love May and not for all the wealth in the world would I have given her up."

James Raynor Wells and Wife No. 2.

believe a man, whether rich or poor, should marry only where he loves. I love May and not for all the wealth in the world would I have given her up."

The couple will go away to-morrow for a short wedding trip. Beyond that they have made no plans, they said.

EX-ALDERMAN, HE SAYS, HELD AS A FIREBUG.

Prisoner Who Calls Himself Peters Charged With Firing Mattresses in Hotel Room.

After a hearing before Magistrate House in Jefferson Market Court today the charge of arson was made against a man who said that he was Henry J. Peters, formerly a Brooklyn Alderman, and was involved in an arson case arising out of the removal of Borough President Ahearn, some years ago. He was held at $2,500 and the case was set for trial on Monday.

Joseph Brown, of No. 122 West Twenty-fourth street, was the complainant. He is the manager of the Clement Hotel, No. 49 Sixth avenue. Brown said the prisoner came to his hotel, Wednesday night with two women and registered under assumed names, designating the companions as his "wife" and "daughter."

Thursday morning the man, who had been left in the hotel by his companions, ran out of his room and a chambermaid found that the mattresses had been set on fire and lighted matches put inside them.

Three employees of the hotel identified the prisoner, and denied that he knew anything of the case and said that he was a lawyer and assistant treasurer of the Seaside Oyster System. His name, he said, was at Hingham, Mass.

HYDE MAKES A NEW MOVE THAT WILL DELAY TRIAL.

Serves Notice That He Will Appeal From Ruling on Change of Venue.

Further delay in calling Charles H. Hyde, former City Chamberlain, to trial on the indictment against him was indicated this afternoon, when Hyde served notice on the District Attorney of the appeal to the Appellate Division from Justice Lehman's decision denying a change of venue. The District Attorney expects he will be served with a notice signed by some Supreme Court Justice calling for a stay of all proceedings until the Appellate Division renders a decision on the appeal.

There was a difference of opinion in the District Attorney's office today as to whether Hyde, in the event the Appellate Division decides against him —can take an appeal to the Court of Appeals. District Attorney Whitman does not doubt that Hyde and his attorneys will try it. In his motion for a change of venue Hyde asserts that his constitutional rights have been invaded, and on this ground a question of law may be evaded out of the controversy. On questions of fact alone there is no appeal beyond the Appellate Division.

ACCUSE MOURNER AS "DIP."

The mourners following the coffin of Abraham Pink down the stairs of his home at Madison avenue and One Hundred and Twenty-third street today grabbed Abraham Argis, a young man, and held him until Detective Han of the East One Hundred and Fourth street station had put him under arrest. They said they had seen him lift the coffin of the dead man's son, Abraham, who was at the time carrying one of his babies behind the coffin, and try to take his pocketbook.

Inasmuch as the complainant was not able to go to court, Magistrate Frosch in Harlem Court held Argis in $1,500 bail until a more serious charge could be made against him to-morrow.

Health and Beauty Hints

BY MISS MAE MARTIN

H. N. B.: To obtain and benefit the complexion you will find nothing better than a simple, inexpensive lotion made by dissolving in warm water a few drops of lemon juice, then adding 2 teaspoonfuls of glycerine. This lotion will freshen up and improve any complexion without doing the slightest harm. It does not dry the skin, does not make the skin red and it is very fine.

D. L.: To quickly get rid of that yellow, pimply look on your face you should take a good system tonic to remove the impurities from your blood, which come from lack of exercise and eating too much solid food in the winter. Good, old-fashioned tonic can be made by dissolving an ounce of karoine in a quart of alcohol, then adding 1/2 cup sugar and hot water to make a quart. Take a tablespoonful before meals and you will be surprised how quickly the look of perfect health will come into your face and your countenance will be restored.

Natier: To strengthen your weak eyes and rid them of that dull, overworked look, put in each eye daily two or three drops of a fine, strengthening tonic, made by dissolving an ounce of cayenne in a pint of water. This eye tonic is a very soothing and strengthening and will make your eyes strong, clear and sparkling. I find it unequalled as a tonic for treating weak, inflamed, eye-sore, etc.

Reider: There is one remedy where all others that I take pleasure in recommending for fat reduction. It is harmless and so very effective in regaining a shapely figure. Just dissolve a teaspoon of cayenne in 1/2 pint hot water and take a tablespoonful before meals. This simple remedy will remove your excess fat rapidly without dieting and strenuous exercise, and seems to produce best results in the winter months. Your skin will be firm and free from any flabbiness.

Mrs. T. B.: You will not catch cold from shampooing if you use for your shampoo a tea-spoonful of castile dissolved in a cup of hot water, rinsing the hair thoroughly. You should never use soap shampoo, as the alkali dries and deadens the hair, causing it to become brittle.

The Electric Car Is Here

It is the ideal car for town and suburban service.

So many have been the recent improvements that it may well be called the NEW electric car.

A wide variety of graceful, low-hung bodies, with batteries having a capacity of one hundred miles and more, are now available.

The Electric is always safe, clean, noiseless, odorless and starts and stops without cranking or shifting of gears.

Distinguishing features are moderate first cost and very economical maintenance.

As the electric automobile is the ideal vehicle for pleasure, so the electric truck and delivery wagon are the most economical and efficient for business service.
